

HEDMAN PARTNERS CLIENT PORTAL AGREEMENT

The Hedman Partners Client Portal (the "Portal") is designed to give our highly valued clients a convenient method of transferring and storing certain financial data while ensuring the confidentiality and security of such information in a manner consistent with industry standards.

Please read the terms and conditions of this agreement carefully before signing. As a guest on the Portal you agree that you and any individuals you assign portal access to ("assigned agent(s)") will abide by these terms and conditions and any future modifications.

Terms and Conditions

By using this Portal you represent that you have requested remote access from Hedman Partners to certain data generated, compiled and stored by Hedman Partners. By using this Portal, you and your assigned agent(s) become legal parties to this agreement and are bound by all of its terms and conditions, without question. Hedman Partners reserves the right to change, amend or modify any and all terms and conditions of use without notice to any member of this Portal. Any such change, amendment or modification shall be effective upon posting on the Portal. Your use of the Portal after a change means that you have agreed to that change.

Use of this Portal is restricted only to such matters that pertain to Hedman Partners and the services we provide to you. Any unauthorized use by you or your assigned agent(s) for personal or business activities outside of activities with Hedman Partners is prohibited.

You agree that you and any assigned agent(s) will not disclose or share the access password with any unauthorized persons or for any unauthorized purpose. You agree to change your Portal access password at least on an annual basis and any time an agent(s) is no longer authorized to access the Portal. It is your responsibility to secure your Portal login information.

Certain long term data will be stored on the Portal for a maximum of three years, however, you should not rely on this storage system as your only method of attaining access to this data.

By using the Portal, you accept that the Internet may not perform as intended despite the best efforts of Hedman Partners or our website and Portal service provider. Continuous, uninterrupted service is not guaranteed. Numerous actions beyond our control may interfere with the service. Hedman Partners and our website and Portal service provider will make every effort to ensure the safety of content posted to the site. You are advised to take adequate precautions to minimize any loss to your system caused by malicious programming (e.g., virus, worms) including use of anti-virus programs and proper backup of files.

Either party may cancel this agreement at any time.
